

AMP After Hours

Join Agilent at our VIP event

Join the conversation with industry leaders at Agilent After Hours

Don't miss the year's Agilent AMP After Hours event, an evening designed for connection and discovery. Network with industry peers, engage with Agilent experts, and enjoy the unique opportunity to mingle with our distinguished guest speakers, influential leaders in molecular pathology, in an informal setting beyond the conference sessions.

Exclusive networking: connect with industry leaders, innovators, and peers who are driving the future of molecular profiling.

In-depth discussions: engage in conversations about the latest research, technologies, and regulatory updates.

Inspiration and innovation: be inspired by pioneering technologies and transformative research presented at AMP 2025 conference.
