

Agilent 2100 Bioanalyzer with Agilent High Sensitivity Protein 250 Kit for protein verification

Trial program 2009

Rules & Conditions

1. These rules and conditions set forth the terms and conditions of the "Agilent 2100 Bioanalyzer with High Sensitivity Protein 250 Kit in protein verification trial offer" campaign run by Agilent Technologies. Contact is the respective local Agilent Technologies sales office. This promotion gives all Agilent 2100 Bioanalyzer trial campaign 2009 respondents with residence within Europe* and USA a chance to participate in a 3 weeks 2100 Bioanalyzer instrument try out test period in accordance with these rules and conditions.
2. No upfront purchase is required to enter the test period. In order to be eligible for the participation, entrants must complete the registration form and include a profile of their product, market and application interests.
3. Participation is open to all respondents in Europe* and USA who are scientists in protein or antibody research and QC-process development or protein production and who are currently using SDS-PAGE gels or Capillary Electrophoresis as technology for their non-labeled proteins. Participants must have the lab resources (labor, space) to use the 2100 Bioanalyzer for the suggested 3 weeks trial period no later than by March 2009. Participants must be willing to support upfront information about the sample type and conditions they plan to run for tests. They need to buy the kits at their own cost from a local Agilent Technologies sales office and support a final discussion about results.
4. Number of participants. Agilent will be able to choose and support maximum 5 suited labs at a time for a onsite trial with 2100 Bioanalyzer instrumentation.
5. Participants will be contacted by Agilent Technologies representatives within 3 weeks after successful and complete registration.
6. Registrations that are incomplete or corrupted will be voided and will not be accepted.
7. The campaign period begins on 16th March 2009 and ends 1st June 2009.
8. By entering this promotion the participants agree to receive only the promotional material that they have selected, from their respective local Agilent Technologies sales office. Participants agree that they do not object to being contacted under these conditions and confirm that they do not and will not consider any of the above as being a breach of any of the rights under the data protection legislation of the European Union, Switzerland, Norway and the USA.

* Campaign is restricted to European Union, Switzerland and Norway
