

IDENTIFY WITH CONFIDENCE

The Measure of Confidence

Focus Your Research with a Pathway Perspective

Get the most comprehensive and advanced solution for understanding proteomics and metabolomics data. Visualize your results in biological pathways, for deeper insight that will accelerate your discovery.

- Uncover statistically significant differences in metabolomics and proteomics data
- Simultaneously project changes in both metabolites and proteins onto pathways to quickly reveal meaningful connections
- Use pathway knowledge to target significant metabolites or proteins in designing your next experiments

Visit www.agilent.com/chem/Pathway-info and learn how pathway-based insight from Agilent's complete, integrated solution can transform the impact of your proteomics and metabolomics research.
