

It Pays to Sign Up for the Agilent Academic Bonus Program

Collect complementary credits with each instrument purchase

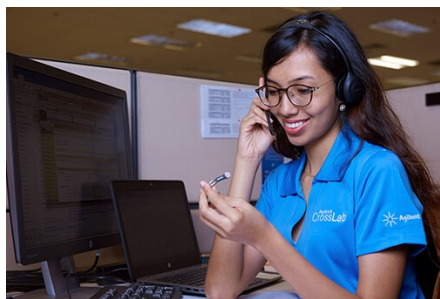

Now it is easy for your core facility and teaching lab to get more value with your next instrument purchase. Collect complementary credits with your instrument purchase and redeem them for consumables and services such as on-demand repair and replacement parts, performance maintenance, and training.

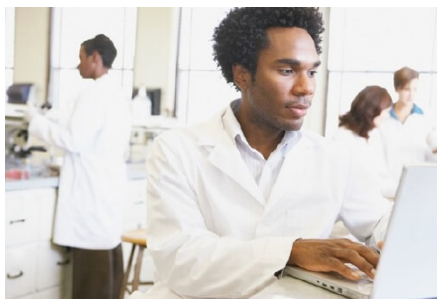

Benefits of the Agilent Flexible Spend Plan (FSP)

- Spend on what you need, when you need it, and track it easily
- Eliminate the need to issue POs for every purchase
- Track account activity and balance online
- Choose from monthly, quarterly, or semi-annual billing options²
- Setting up an Agilent Flexible Spend account is free
- Add funds or new users to your account at any time
