Agilent
CrossLab
From Insight to Outcome

Online Technical Support

Our certified engineers and specialists will give you expert troubleshooting advice and guidance on achieving optimal instrument performance. Through remote connection capabilities and our Augmented Reality app you can virtually invite them “into your lab.”

Onsite Service Scheduling

Our scheduling team will be your point of contact for reactive and preventive onsite services as well as coordinating the installation process. We optimize field operations to get you the skilled specialists you need, when you need them.

Orders and Invoices

We'll take care of your Agilent purchases—from checking product availability, to helping you place your online orders, to tracking deliveries, to providing delivery notes and invoices.

Online Sales Team

Our dedicated team will help you with enquiries regarding instruments, consumables, service contracts, consultancy, and training.

Fast response

More than 90% of all phone calls answered within 20 seconds.

Reduced downtime

50% of all service enquiries are resolved by phone, email or through our Instrument Exchange Program.
